SUMMARY

I'm a highly motivated individual and believes that for quality work we need the perfect combination of hard work and smart work. I'm a team player and can adapt myself as per organizational demands. I have forayed into various fields like Android Development, Ethical Hacking, Game Development, Cloud Services etc. hence have an unorthodox view of the famous fields. I have also been through various programming languages like C, C++, Java, Unity C#, Python, Dart, Go, etc. and have gained proficiency in Python, Dart and C++. I always have a burning curiosity inside me which has helped me to explore and keep me motivated to learn more.
